

Diversity in the Film Festivals

by Yuqing Liu

represents individual movie
color based on the origin country

North America
Europe
South America
Oceania
Asia
Africa

This data visualization looks at which countries have won the most top prizes at film festivals. Some film festivals have multiple winners in certain years, while some do not hold competitions every year.

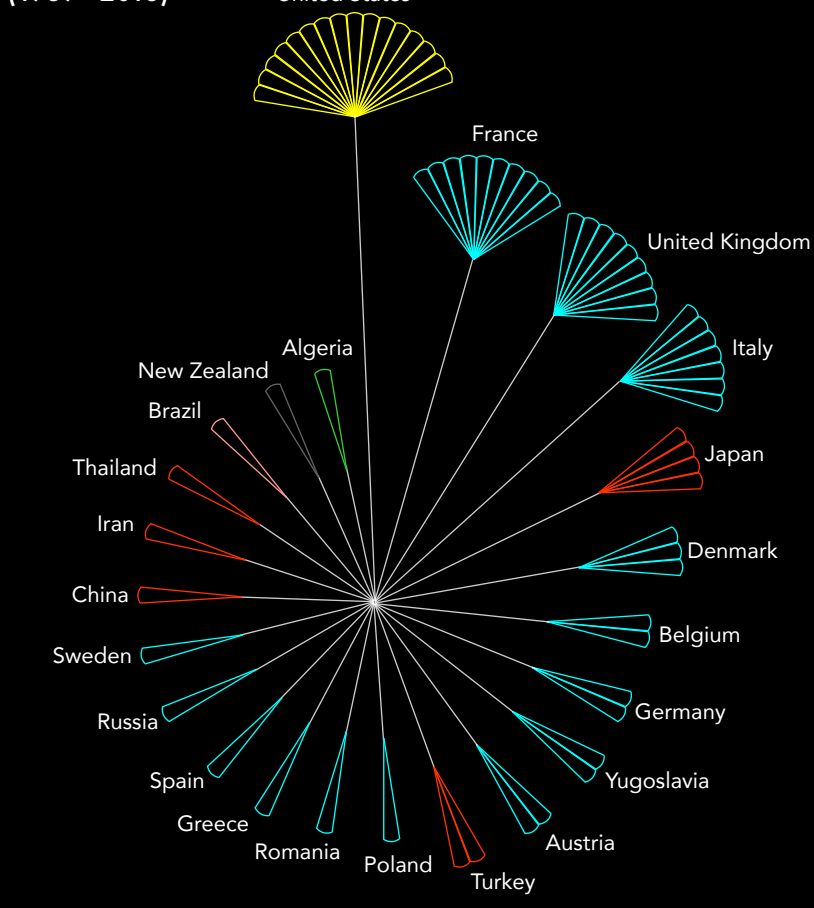

According to the FIAPF (International Federation of Film Producers Associations), there are 15 accredited Competitive Feature Film Festivals. 9 of them are from Europe, 3 film festivals are from Asia, the rest are from North America, South America and Africa.

Europe

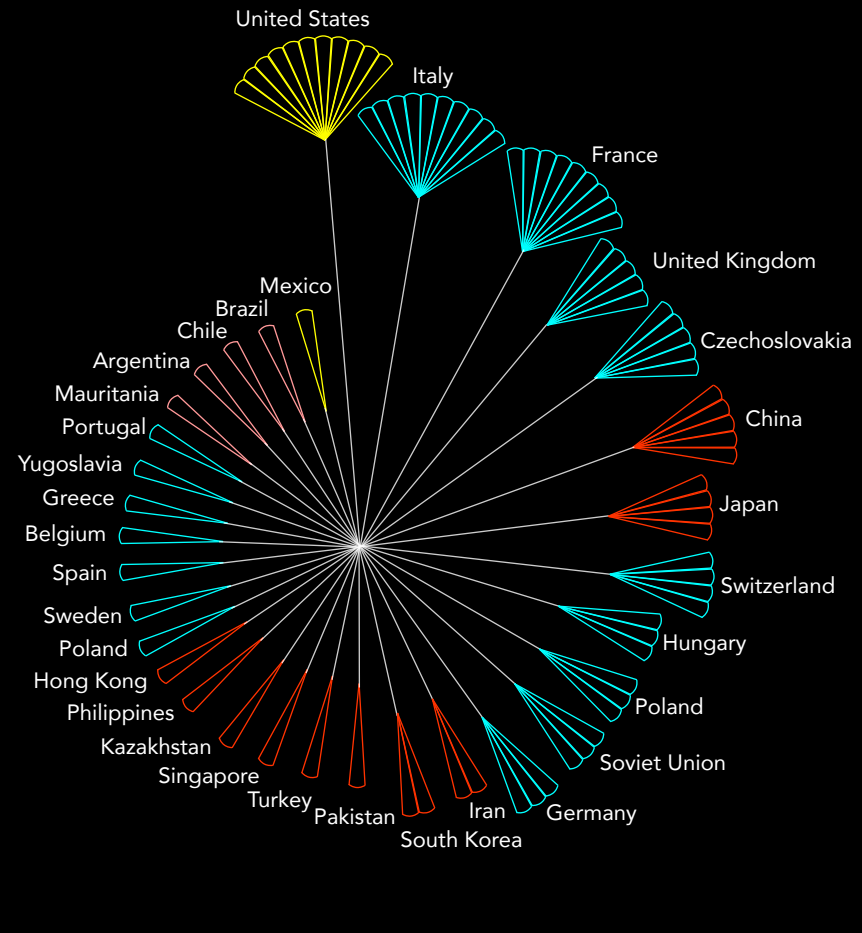

Venice Film Festival (Italy)
Golden Lion Winners
(1932 - 2018)

Cannes Film Festival (France)
Golden Palm Winners
(1939 - 2018)

Locarno International Film Festival (Switzerland)
Golden Leopard Winners
(1946 - 2018)

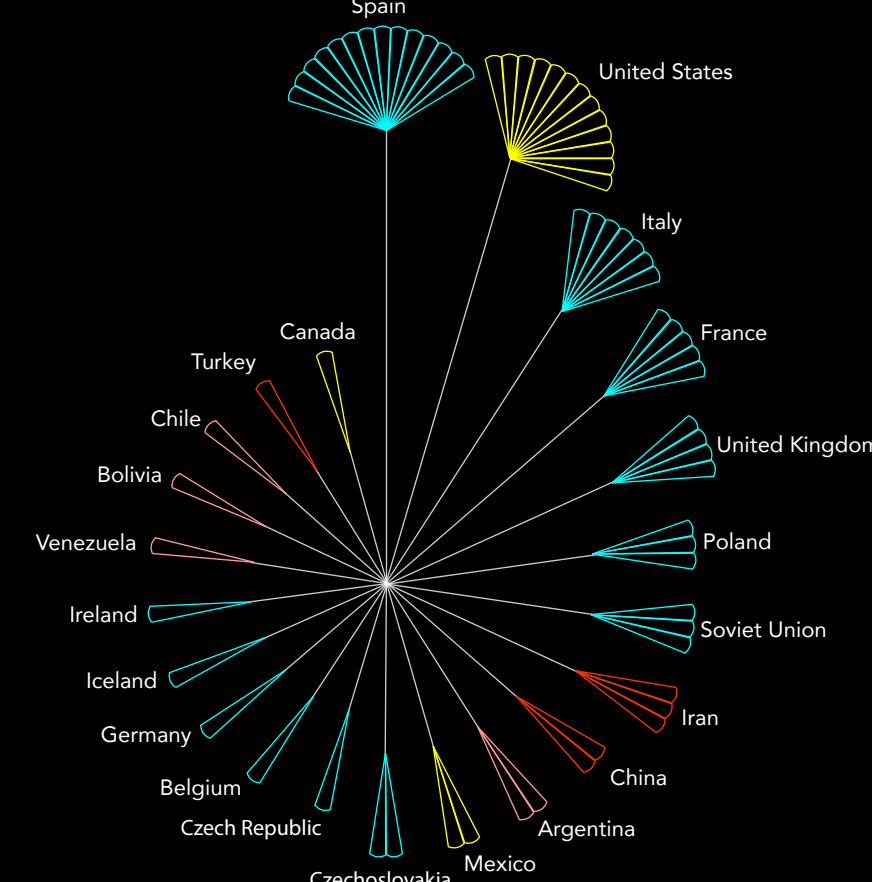

Karlovy Vary International Film Festival (Czech Republic)
Crystal Globe Winners
(1948 - 2018)

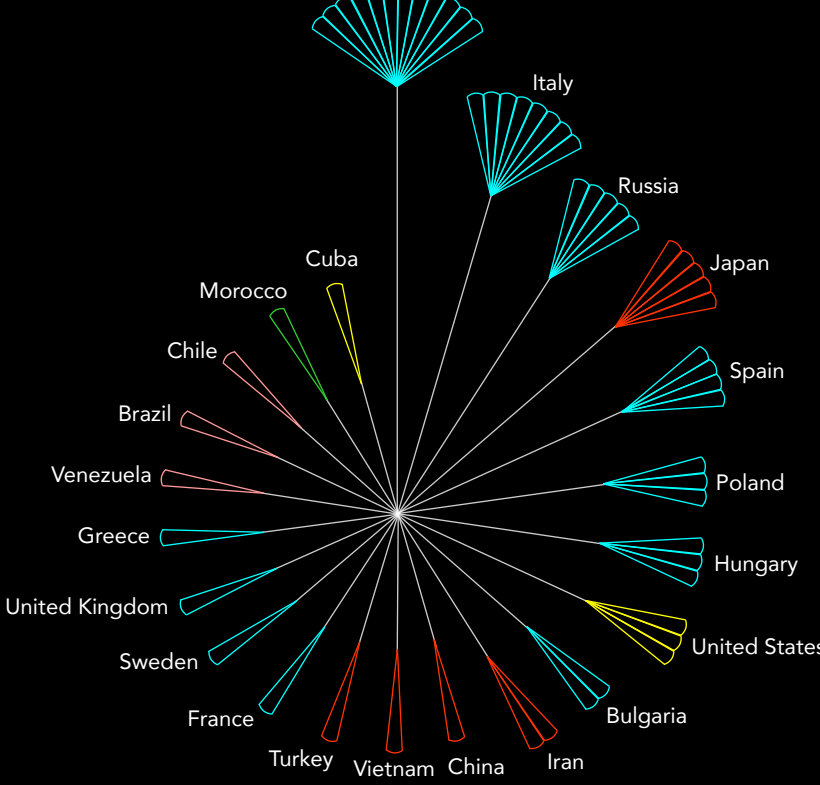

Berlin International Film Festival (Germany)
Golden Bear Winners
(1951 - 2018)

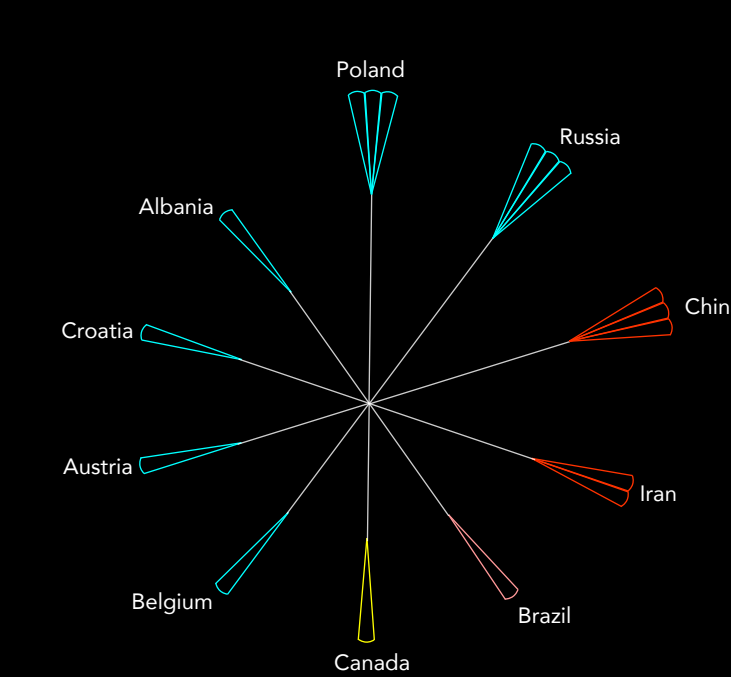

San Sebastián International Film Festival (Spain)
Golden Shell Winners
(1953 - 2018)

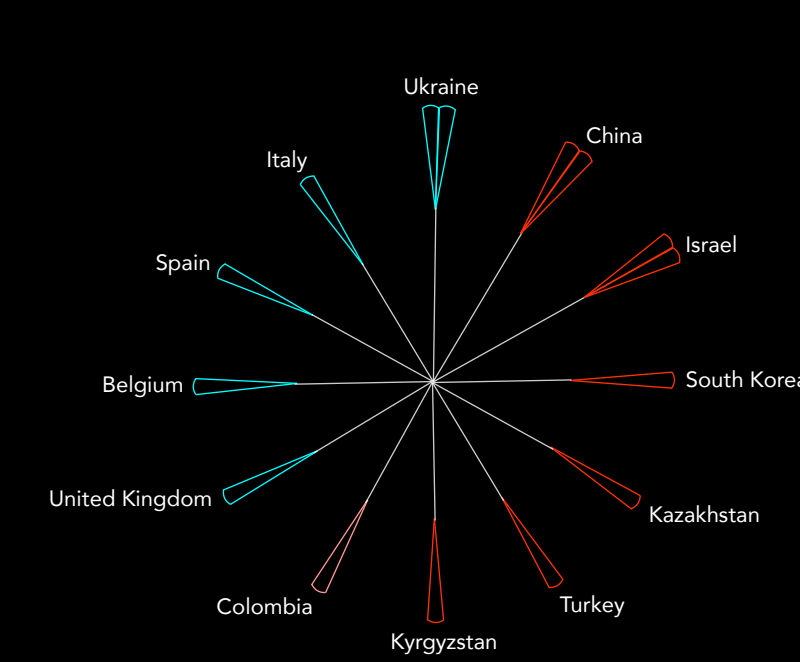

Moscow International Film Festival (Russia)
Golden Wingers
(1959 - 2018)

Warsaw International Film Festival (Poland)
International Competition Winners
(2002 - 2018)

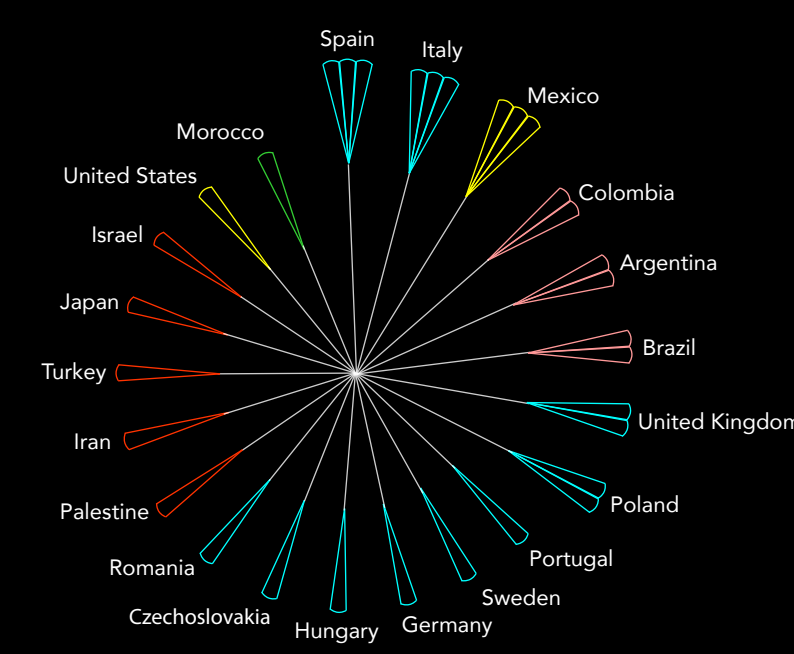

Tallinn Black Nights Film Festival (Estonia)
Grand Prix Winners
(2004 - 2018)

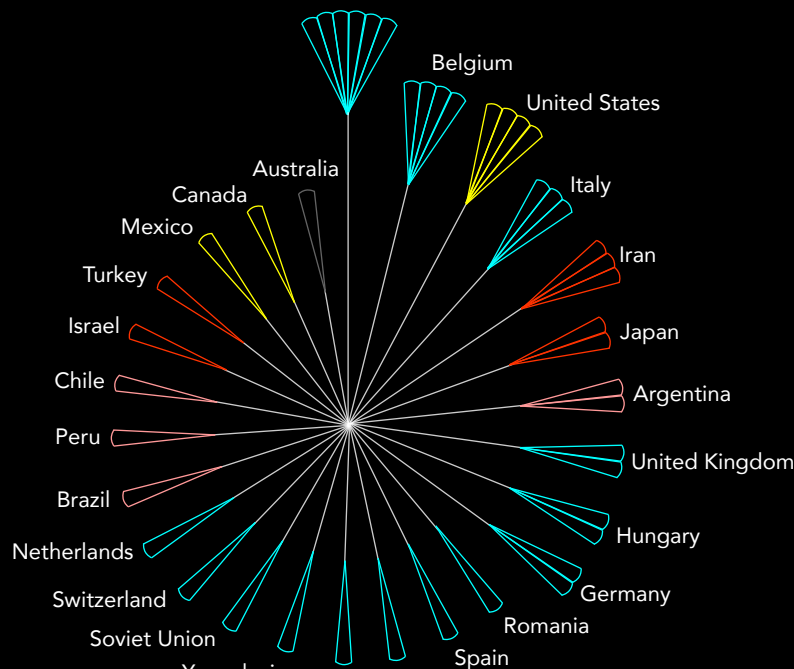

South America

Mar del Plata Film Festival (Argentina)
Golden Astar Winners
(1959 - 2018)

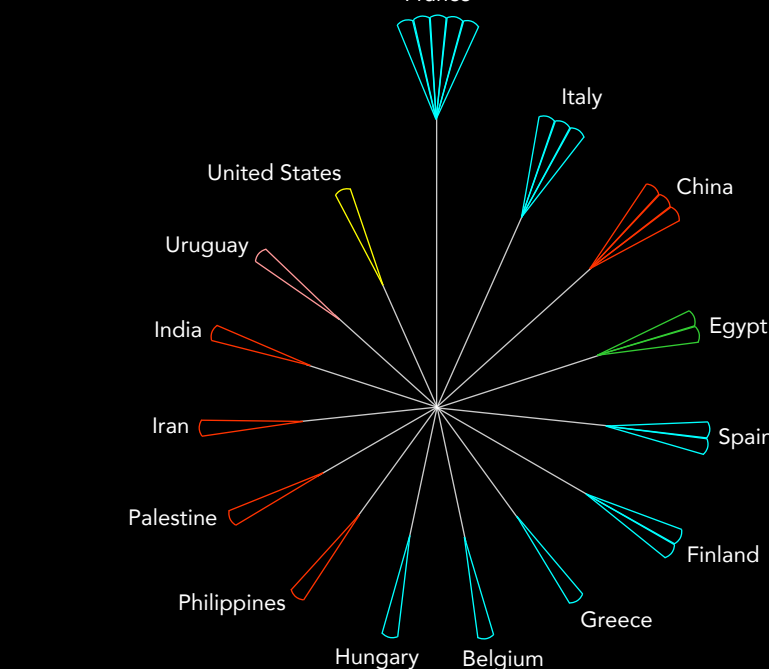

North America

Montreal World Film Festival (Canada)
Grand Prix des Amériques Winners
(1978 - 2018)

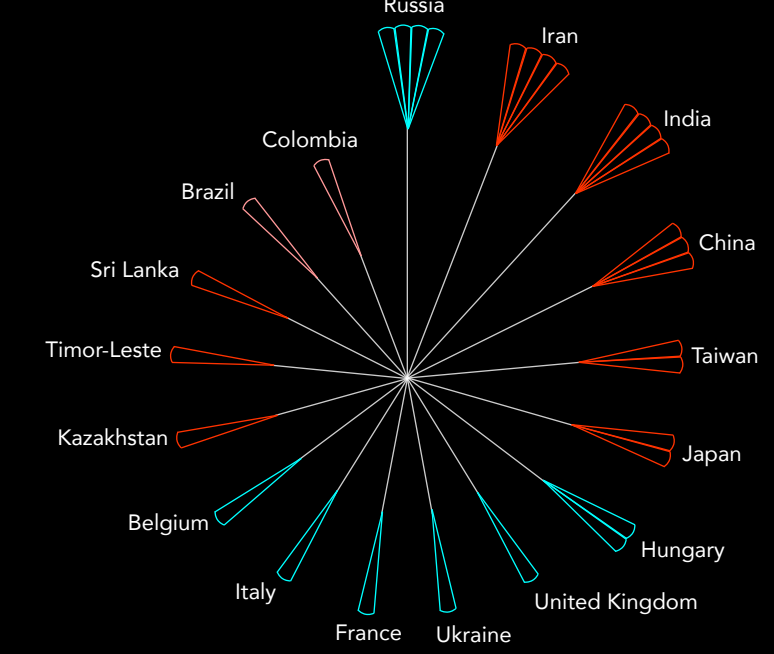

Africa

Cairo International Film Festival (Egypt)
Golden Pyramid Award
(1991 - 2018)

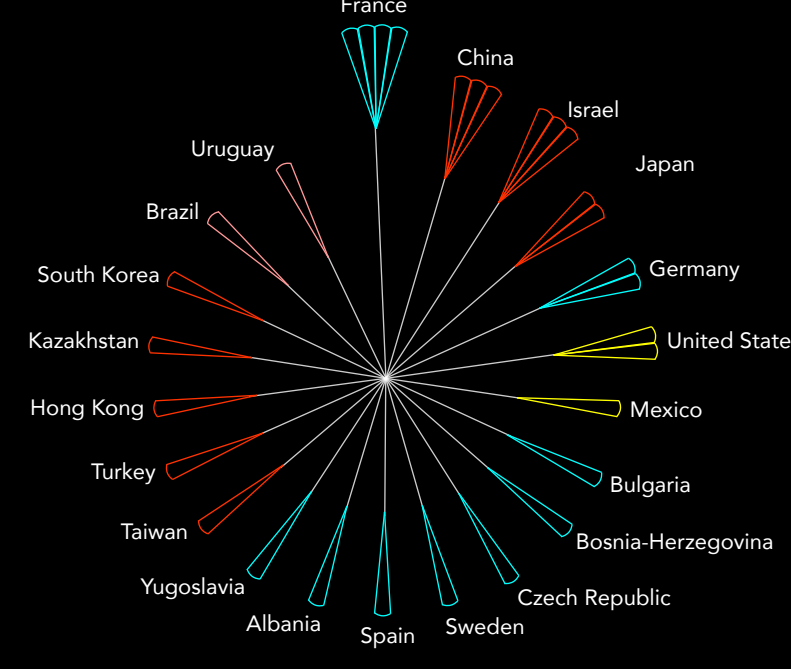

Asia

International Film Festival of India (India)
Golden Peacock Winners
(1965 - 2018)

Tokyo International Film Festival (Japan)
Tokyo Grand Prix Winners
(1985 - 2018)

Shanghai International Film Festival (China)
Golden Goblet Winners
(1993 - 2018)

